Michael Power/St. Joseph Catholic Secondary School is proud to be hosting the 13th Annual Mini Olympics. The Mini Olympics is a board-wide celebration of the resilience, the courage and fortitude of many of our athletes with special needs.

This year there will be 22 Catholic high schools represented with over 600 students and support staff. The athletes will be competing against one another in challenging games and activities that benefits them physically, mentally, socially and spiritually.

Our theme this year is Imagine, Dream, Believe. It is a theme centred on the inspiration that one could; the aspiration that one would, and the determination that one should defy the challenges and stretch beyond the exceptionalities.
