

Official Opening and Solemn Blessing Of Msgr. Percy Johnson Catholic Secondary School June 8, 2008

Current and former staff and students gathered at the newly opening Msgr. Percy Johnson Catholic Secondary School to celebrate the official opening and solemn blessing of the new facility.

Father Michael Pace blesses the school.

The school band (left) and school choir (right) performed at the official ceremonies.

Among the many dignitaries present for the celebration were: Father Michael Pace from St. Benedict Catholic Church, Tony Augello, current Principal, Director of Education Kevin Kobus and Trustee Joseph Martino.

Among the many speakers were: Hernani Sagra, (left) a student at Johnson and Principal Tony Augello (right).

A portrait of St. John Bosco was presented to the school by the Salesians of Don Bosco and will be displayed in the school's atrium.

Area MPP Shafiq Qadri presented the school with a new provincial flag.
