St. John Catholic School Newsletter

Principal Ponders:

Wow, what a year! I can hardly believe it is over, but it is. We have seen our children learn and do such exciting things this year and we are so very proud of their successes! Congratulations to our staff, parents and most of all, our children, for their hard work this year. Congratulations to our graduates! It is our hope that their experience in the St. John school community has been meaningful. It is our sincere wish that the caring and compassion established over the years with parents and graduating students will be maintained

I would like to take this opportunity to thank our CSAC, our parents and other volunteers who have worked so tirelessly with and for our students. Volunteers this year have been involved in Fun Fair, playday, coaching swimming, supporting trips, driving children to events, fundraising, CSAC, buying things for the school, writing and creating the SCOOP, collecting donations, helping to process books, etc. Volunteers for the school have been as busy as the children and teachers this year and have certainly helped to make this a fun year!

St. John Catholic School must say farewell to Mrs. Aleksic. Mrs. Aleksic has taught for many successful years at St. John and will be missed next year as she enjoys new opportunities on her leave. Thank you for everything you have done to support our students. We hope to see you again!!

August 29, 2008

At CSAC's request I will be posting students' names, on the windows of the front doors, listing classrooms for next school year. For those interested, please check the list but do not call the school. If you do not want your child's first name included on the list, please leave a message on the school message machine. No last names will be used - only your initial!

Important Dates for Next Year: CSAC AGM and Elections: September 25th, 2008 Curriculum Night September 18th, 2008

On the first day of school, parents should bring their children directly to the schoolyard. The grades will be posted on the fence. If you have any difficulty, a member of the staff will help you. It is best that you arrive with your child at about 8:30a.m.

It has been a pleasure for me to work with the students and parents at St. John during the past year. Our last day of school with students is officially June 25th.

The MODEL for next School Year has been changed for Students grades 5 to 8.

Next school year the children at St. John from grades 5 to 8 will have their English classes in an unstreamed manner. Whether children are in the English or the French stream they will take their English classes (Language Arts, Math and Science) together in a mixed grouping. The students in French and English will have different teachers and classmates in the morning as compared to the afternoon. This should be a very positive change for all of the students.

Registration for Next School Year:

If you have neighbours interested in coming to St. John and they have not registered yet, please ask them to call us and make an appointment before July 4 or between August 25 – August 29 (8:30 – 4:00). The sooner we have registrations the better organized the school will be! ☺

CSAC Corner

As in previous years, CSAC will be subsidizing the cost of St. John School agendas. The agendas (used from Gr. 1 - 8) are an important academic tool which assists your child with organizing their schoolwork and allows communication between the teacher and the parents. The cost of each agenda is $8 and parents are asked to pay $7 per child. A reminder will be sent home along with the agendas in September 2008.

Parents are invited to participate in the elections of members for school CSAC which take place in September. Our Annual General Meeting will be September 25 at 7:00 p.m. in the library.

Blessing for a Safe Vacation:

God our Father, you led the children of Israel on dry land, parting the waters of the sea. You guided the Magi to your Son by a star. May God bless us with a safe and happy summer vacation. Under your protection, lead us first to our earthly homes, and then to that of your Son in heaven.

Amen

10 Tips to help your child with math

Tips for Kindergarten to Grade 3

1. Counting can be fun and entertaining. Sing counting songs such as "One, Two Buckle My Shoe". Your local librarian can recommend fun counting books. Play Hopscotch – it's a counting game! There are lots of games where you count, such as Snakes and Ladders, Dominoes, Crazy Eights and Candyland®.
2. Computers + math = fun. There are great computer games available for math – ask your librarian or check out your local computer store. Make sure they are "parent approved". There are also super websites that have fun math games, such as TVOKids, or do an Internet search for other sites.
3. Start Easy and Work Up! Once they have got the hang of counting by 1s, introduce skip counting, such as counting by 2s and 5s.
4. Use household items for counting practice. Practise adding and subtracting with objects found around your house like spoons or pots and pans. When they've become good at these skills, move on to simple multiplication.
5. Tap into your child's curiosity. Go on a number hunt together and discover places where numbers are used such as a clock, TV, computer keyboard, calendar, telephones and license plates.
6. Use everyday activities. Your child's world is filled with everyday math problems that can be solved. For example, "There are four people in our family and we each need a knife and a fork to eat dinner. How many knives and forks do we need to set the table?"
7. Kitchens can be math zones. Bake some muffins or cookies and ask your child to help you measure out the ingredients. It may be a bit messy but it's fun family time and there's nothing like a fresh cookie as a reward. Have math fridge magnets available so children can start making number patterns and doing simple math problems.
8. Predict and compare. Start to measure and estimate things like how far it is from the driveway to the house or how long a trip will take and then measure and compare the actual time it takes.
9. Talk about time. The concept of time can be hard to grasp. Talk to your kids about minutes and hours. Then get them to try counting days and weeks – for example how many "sleeps" until the weekend or a visit to a friend or relative.

10. Identify geometric shapes and sizes. Play "I Spy". Instead of looking for words beginning with a letter, look for different colours or shapes and count the number you find in the room.

10 Tips to help your child with math

Tips for Grades 4 to 6

1. Connect math to daily life. Let your kids know the importance of math in day-to-day living. Talk about the ways you use math in your job and around the house. Show them a tax form or how you pay the bills. Ask them how they used math during the day.
2. Practise mental math using coins. For example, show that a certain item costs a certain amount and ask what coins are needed to pay for it.
3. Play games together. Show them math can be fun and exciting. Play family games to add excitement to math activities, like chess or checkers or games in the car such as math bingo or adding license plate numbers. Lots of board games need math such as Junior Monopoly® or play card games such as Uno®.
4. Cooking can be counting fun! Get older children involved in helping out at dinner time and let them help measure ingredients for dishes or estimate the number of potatoes that are needed to feed everyone.
5. Play the estimating game. Ask your kids to estimate measurements, distances, time and grocery bills. Be sure to compare the estimate with actual. Or get them to guess how much the apples you are going to buy will weigh and then take them to the scale in the grocery store and find out.
6. Perform time calculations. For example, make up a sentence and ask your child to recite it as many times as possible in 15 seconds. Then ask how many times it could be repeated in 1 minute, 5 minutes, 10 minutes, etc.
7. Use common toys to understand math concepts. Build a tower from blocks. Count the blocks. Then talk about the need for a base of the right size and the stability it creates.
8. Sports and math. There is a lot of math used in sports: batting averages, points per game, save percentages – these are math terms that a sports enthusiast will love. If you watch a game with your child, read the newspaper report together sometime the next day and talk about the math concepts.
9. Computers + math = fun. There are great computer games available for math—ask your librarian or check out your local computer store. Make sure they are "parent approved". There are also super websites that have fun math games, so do an Internet search for sites and bookmark them for future use.

10. Measuring made easy. Estimate and measure the area of different shapes. For example, use small square objects (plastic tiles, dice, etc.) to estimate then measure how many are needed to fill the area of various flat surfaces such as a magazine cover

SAFETY TIPS FOR YOUR CHILDREN

Children should:

- always tell you where they are
- know how to use the pay telephone, including how to call long distance by dialing direct or using operator assistance. They should always have emergency telephone money with them.
- memorize the telephone numbers (including area code) of home and a neighbour
- know their name, age, address, city and province
- go places with friends
- walk with one or more friends to and from school
- never approach or enter a stranger's car
- never open the door to a stranger
- never say they are alone if they answer the phone or door
- never let strangers in the house
- never accept gifts from strangers
- never enter anyone's home or car without permission from parents
- know it's okay to say "no" to adults, especially if the adult wants them to do something which makes them uncomfortable or they know is wrong
- know that it is unwise to believe stories such as a person wanting them to help find a lost pet, etc.
- know that no one has the right to touch any part of his or her body that a bathing suit would cover
- recognize suspicious behaviour and report it immediately
- know to tell you if someone has asked them to keep a secret from you
- know what to do in case of unwelcome attention e.g. walk faster, go to a neighbourhood store, head for a busy street, walk toward a group of people and wave as if they see someone they know
- scream and keep screaming if something is wrong
- kick and bite hard if someone grabs them
- know that uniformed police officers are there to protect
- parents are encouraged to give their children a "password" known only to them. This can be used when a stranger, a friend or family member approaches them and asks them to come with them.

Use of the Internet

With the beginning of summer holidays, many students may be spending more time in front of their computers, surfing the Internet for information and entertainment, and chatting with their friends online. We would encourage all parents/guardians to remain vigilant and to monitor the online activities of their children.

It has been brought to the Board's attention that on occasion individual students, or groups of students, have created their own websites and posted photographs and other personal information about themselves and/or about their friends. Whenever this type of activity is brought to the attention of the school or the school board, parents are contacted immediately. Often these websites have been developed without the parents' knowledge or approval.

While at school, students adhere to the Board's Acceptable Use Policy, and online activities are strictly monitored. Internet safety is discussed with students at age-appropriate levels at various times during the school year.

It is important for young people to be reminded about the dangers of posting personal information and photographs on public websites, which are accessible to anyone with a computer. Although often an innocent attempt at sharing favourite pictures with friends, these websites may invite negative attention.

Calling all Books

Please have a look around your home for any books belonging to the school, and return them as soon as possible. We always appreciate the honesty of our families and returned books are gratefully accepted.

Your CSAC wishes to extend a heartfelt thank you to all of the parents who volunteered in so many different capacities and with so many of our projects this school year. Your efforts in helping in so many ways have helped make our school year a great experience. Your efforts have resulted in buses for class trips, support for Grade Eight graduation, scientists in the school and numerous other enriching experiences for all of our students. We are grateful to so many of you for your contributions both big and small. We couldn't have done it without you! Have a great summer! We look forward to working together with you in the fall. If you are interested in getting involved in the CSAC next school year, please be aware that the meetings will be on Tuesdays.
