

Meagan's Walk in the Ne

Crane Ceremony: Symbols of Hope

We're gearing up for this year's Walk with the annual Crane Ceremony, which will be held April 22nd at 10:30am at the University Avenue entrance of Sick Kids. Students from St. Raphael and Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Elementary schools have been busy making origami cranes, which they will present to hospital patients and children with brain tumours. Denise Bebenek will also be there to share a few words and spread the message of hope. The cranes are a symbol of hope based on Sadako Sasaki's inspiring story. Click here for Sadako's story. Also, check out photos from last year's Crane Ceremony on our Facebook photo page and stay tuned for photos from this year's event.