R-E-S-P-E-C-T & Multicultural Manners

“Say Hello to All the World!” Concert with

Judi The Manners Lady

A 2010 Legacy

On Wednesday, January 21st, 2009 Judi, the Manners Lady presented two highly energetic, exciting presentations to the students of St. Margaret Catholic School. Judi, is an award winning recording artist, speaker and author of “Manners Are Cool”. Through her message and exciting music, students were actively engaged in singing and learning about Gospel values. Her lively songs such as “The Golden Rule Rap”, “Goodness Gracious Gratitude” and “R-E-S-P-E-C-T” were an enjoyable way to reinforce manners and respect.

We were very pleased to have Kirk Mark (Race & Ethnic Relations, Multiculturalism) and Michael Mc Morrow (superintendent) role play with the students on how to respectfully greet others.

St. Margaret Catholic School has accepted The Manners Lady’s 2010 Challenge to the schools in Canada to learn to say “Hi! How are you?” in the language of every student who attends the school.
