

St. Margaret School Hosts Book Launch

On April 21st, 2009 St. Margaret school welcomed author Lori Sherritt-Fleming, a graduate of St. Paschal Baylon and Loretto Abbey Secondary School, and special guest authors Kari-Lynn Winters and Crystal Stranghan in helping to launch their new books entitled “aRHYHMeTic” and “World of Stories”. Lori and Kari’s presentation captivated the students’ interest with their songs and puppetry from aRHYHMeTic poetry. Students were spellbound with their poetry and math and enjoyed interacting as they listened and participated in math songs and rhymes.

The book aRHYHMeTic contains 48 interactive math fun and colourful illustrations, which keeps readers so involved that they don’t realize they are learning. World of Stories contains 18 stories by authors around the world celebrating holidays such as Earth Day or World Literacy Day. More information regarding these books is found on www.gumbootbooks.ca.

Congratulations to Lori Sherritt-Fleming a student from our Toronto Catholic District School Board. You can read her published “Rot-Ten Dragon” poem and be swept away with in the exciting adventure with movement and thrills for children. Let her vivid language carry your imagination through action pack adventures of dragons, all the while reviewing counting by tens. Thank you for making math so much fun!

