

Christmas Message from the Director of Education And Chair of the Board

The wait is almost over. As Advent draws to a close, we look forward with anticipation to celebrating the birth of our Savior, we wish all of you a blessed, joyful and peaceful Christmas season.

We thank everyone in our TCDSB family for the role that each of you plays in supporting, inspiring, and guiding our students.

We acknowledge everyone for embracing the virtue of charity throughout the school year, but most particularly the outpouring of love, compassion and generosity that we see throughout Advent.

Let us pledge to extend the Christmas spirit of giving into the New Year by following the example of The Holy Family by extending our hearts and hands to all those who are seeking shelter and support much as Mary and Joseph did on that Christmas night so many years ago.

In the words of Pope Francis “Together with them (the shepherds), let us pause before the Child, let us pause in silence. Together with them, let us thank the Lord for having given Jesus to us, and with them let us raise from the depths of our hearts the praises of his fidelity: We bless you, Lord God most high, who lowered yourself for our sake. You are immense, and you made yourself small; you are rich and you made yourself poor; you are all-powerful and you made yourself vulnerable. On this night let us share the joy of the Gospel: God loves us, he so loves us that he gave us his Son to be our brother, to be light in our darkness.”

Merry Christmas!
