

Premier Visits Holy Angels Catholic School

Premier Dalton McGuinty and MPP Laurel Brotten stopped by Holy Angels Catholic School on June 15th to make an announcement regarding full-day learning for four and five-year-old children. The Premier and MPP were greeted by Superintendent Colleen Tovey-Shackleton, Principal Lillian Kurnik and parents from the school. A student by the name of Marco, presented the Premier with a letter, asking him to consider paying for a new playground for the school. Mr. McGuinty visited Ms. Berbenetz and Mr. Sloan's classrooms, trying out the Smart Board technology and answering students' questions.

Photos: Above right: Marco presents his letter to the Premier while MPP Laurel Brotten, Superintendent Colleen Tovey-Shackleton and Principal Lillian Kurnik look on.

Below right: L to R – Colleen Tovey-Shackleton, Superintendent of Education, Premier Dalton McGuinty, Lauren Brotten, MPP and Lillian Kurnik, Principal of Holy Angels Catholic School

Below left: the Premier speaks with a student

