

Toronto school rescues Iraqi refugees

By Michael Swan, The Catholic Register Monday, 10 May 2010 13:23

For Iraqi families that have endured months and years living as refugees in Damascus and Beirut, just landing in Canada doesn't solve all their problems.

But the Ontario's publicly funded Catholic schools come close. Take a virtual visit to St. Andrew's Catholic School in Etobicoke.