Loving God,

You created us to love one another and to love you. Indeed, you declared, "A new heart I will give you, and a new spirit I will put within you." Give us new hearts, warm hearts, lively spirits, ready spirits, so that we can love one another as you have loved us.

Help us to put aside anything that will turn our heart to stone; old resentments, grudges, worn-out fears, or distrust. In gathering together we need a new heart. Create this willing spirit within each of us.

Amen.
