

Literature Resources and Excerpts on Hospitality

Click on the links below to read more about the suggested books.

- A Walk with Four Spiritual Guides
Andrew Harvey
An inspiring and admirable work of multi-faith hospitality.
- Responses to 101 Questions on Islam
John Renard
A very useful overview of this religion, using a question-and-answer format.
- Celtic Prayers from Iona
J. Philip Newell
Contains a weekly cycle of morning and evening prayers written in the style and spiritual purview of the Celtic tradition.
- How to Be a Perfect Stranger
Stuart Matlins, Arthur Magida
An essential resource for church, mosque, and synagogue libraries.
- Befriending the Stranger
Jean Vanier
A radical overview of the spiritual practice of hospitality.

Film Resources

Click on the links below to learn more about the suggested films.

- Babe
Directed by Chris Noonan
Universal Studios Home Video 08/95 DVD/VHS Feature Film G

This film celebrates the dignity and variety of animals — the whole story is told from their perspective. An animated moral masterpiece about a pig and his barnyard friends reveals the importance of hospitality, empathy, and service of others. (Babe)

- As Good As It Gets
Directed by James L. Brooks

Columbia TriStar 12/97 DVD/VHS Feature Film

PG-13 - strong language, thematic elements, nudity, a beating

A shaggy dog romantic comedy advises us to practice hospitality to all and never to write anyone off. (*As Good As It Gets*)

- Toy Story