Charity – Scripture Passages and Quotes

“Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angel and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal.” (Acts 2:44-45)

“And now abide with faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.” (1Corinthians 13: 1)

“The measure you give will be the measure you get.” (Matthew 7: 2)

“It is more blessed to give than to receive.” (Acts 20:35)

“The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free.” (Mark 4:18)

“Love of neighbour, grounded in the love of God, is first and foremost a responsibility for each individual member of the faithful, but it is also a responsibility for the entire ecclesial community at every level: from the local community to the particular Church and to the Church universal in its entirety. As a community, the Church must practise love.” (Deus Caritas est)

“For the Church, charity is not a kind of welfare activity which could equally well be left to others, but is a part of her nature, an indispensable expression of her very being.” (Deus Caritas est)

“Make God your partner in all things.” (Author Unknown)

“Give without any thought of receiving.” (Author Unknown)

“In a world which ignores the human thirst for God, we are called to share the living waters of our faith.” (This Moment of Promise)

Ubi Caritas et amor, Deus ibi est. (Where there is charity and love, God is there.)
