Liturgical Calendar and Saints of the TCDSB

Take the time to learn more about the life of a Saint whose special day is being celebrated this month. Acknowledge a friend, family member or neighbour who shares a Saint’s name this month and make a point to recognize the personal talents and gifts that they bring to your community!

Liturgical Calendar - Ordinary Time

- All Saints Day celebrates the lives of all Christians who have died in a state of grace. All Saints Day, a holy day of obligation, is always recognized on November 1. This upcoming year, it will fall on:
  Thursday, November 1, 2018

The "liturgical year" includes the first Sunday of Advent and the last week in Ordinary Time. The liturgical year consists of two times: one can call the first time “special season time” and the other is known as “ordinary time”. The special season times are, Advent, Christmas, Lent, Triduum, and Easter, during which a particular mystery of salvation is celebrated. Ordinary Time, in turn, celebrates the mystery of Christ in His fullness, especially on Sundays. Ordinary Time is divided into two parts throughout the liturgical year and in total lasts 33 or 34 weeks.
