

Are you interested in learning FREE
Citizenship preparation course online?

With funding from Government of Ontario, we are looking for participants in fall 2018. Here is some information about the course:

- This course is meant to be self-directed. That is you should be able to go through all the units on your own without help. However, we are there to help if you need it. We assume that you are able to work independently on your computer.
- You are expected to take an online mini course on how to sign up and login to an e-course, and complete assignments.
- Your English level (CLB) in listening, speaking, reading and writing should be 5 and above.
- You are expected to follow the instructions that are outlined in the course space to help maximize your engagement in the course activities. You will learn about them after you have officially signed up.
- This course is offered during Sep 4-Dec 21. There are 12 units- some shorter (about 2-3 hours) and some longer (about 8-10 hours). It is expected that you complete all the units which will take about 60-80 hours. These units consist of many activities to familiarize you with the content required to pass the citizenship test.
- You can complete the units at your own time and pace and repeat the activities as many times as you like. There are quizzes, games, and a variety of readings to help you learn the material.
- There is an assessment task within each unit that you can only do ONCE.
- Once you complete all the units, we can send you a certificate of completion that you can submit with your citizenship application.

You are eligible if your immigration status is:

- Refugee claimant OR
- Convention Refugee OR
- Permanent resident OR
- Canadian Citizen

What do I need to register?
