

TEXTS REFLECTING Philippines

These texts can be found at two of our TCDSB approved book stores. Please see websites for more details.

A Different Booklist; Another Story

	Hand Over Hand By Alma Fullerton Primary Fiction	Nina can't convince her lolo to take her fishing on the old banca boat with him. Lolo's reply is the same as always: "A boat is no place for a girl." When Nina promises to bait her own hook and remove her own catch, her grandfather finally relents, "just for today." This story addresses persistence, mindset and breaking roles.
	Filipino Friends By Liana Romulo Primary Fiction	Through the eyes of Sam, a Filipino-American boy visiting the Philippines for the very first time, children will learn about Philippine customs and language. Soft, whimsical watercolors labeled with English words and Filipino translations bring to light the differences and bridges the gap between Western and Philippine lifestyles and culture.
	My First Book of Tagalog Words By Liana Romulo Primary Informational in Poetic Form	In the age-old tradition of teaching language through rhyme and verse, My First Book of Tagalog Words introduces Philippine language and culture to preschool children in a playful and non-intimidating way. The ABC structure provides a familiar framework that encourages fun and easy learning. Its bold and bright illustrations aim to make children laugh and enjoy the learning process.

	Where is Winnipeg? By Darlyne Bautista Primary Fiction Immigration	Follow this little Filipina girl as she investigates around town where her family is immigrating to. The answers she finds will surprise you! 'Where is Winnipeg?' is a heart-warming tale that will give kids a sense of what it may mean to move from the Philippines to Canada. Includes some Filipino language.
	Pan de Sal Saves the Day by Norma Chikiamco Primary/Junior Fiction (Image/Identity)	A heart-warming story of a young Filipino girl who builds self-confidence after spending a day with her classmates. This is an award-winning inspiring tale of a young girl named Pan de Sal who lives in the Philippines. For anyone who has ever felt like an outsider or experienced adversity, Pan de Sal Saves the Day teaches children to see the unique qualities in everything and everyone, even themselves.
	Filipino Children's Favourite Stories By Liana elena Fomulo Primary/Junior Myths/Legends	Filipino Children's Favourite Stories presents well-loved myths and tales from the Philippines. It introduces Maga the giant crab, and a host of other intriguing characters. Many of the tales have been transmitted from mother to child over many centuries themes- -such as the forces of good triumphing over evil, children rebelling against adults and the weak prevailing over the strong.

	Filipino Celebrations By Liana Romulo Primary/Junior Informational Text	Filipino Celebrations brings to life the festivals and celebrations of this diverse island nation. Filipino Celebrations includes activities such as games, songs, crafts and recipes which encourage children to participate and learn while having fun. Children will learn the history of each holiday, its cultural influences, the varied ways in which people celebrate in different regions of the Philippines, special customs and foods, key words and phrases, and more.
	Our Rights: How Kids are Changing the World By Janet Wilson Junior/ Intermediate Informational Text	This around-the-world tour introduces readers to children fighting for human rights and social justice. One of them is Emman Bagual who founded Mind Your Rights to fight child labor in the Philippines. A diverse range of other issues is covered, including aboriginal rights, human trafficking and child soldiers, and the full United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child can be found alongside tips for how kids everywhere can make a difference.
	The Imam of Tawi-Tawi By Ian Hamilton Intermediate High School Crime Thriller	A compulsive suspense thriller. Ava must fly to Manila to meet with Senator Miguel Ramirez. Ramirez asks Ava to investigate a college in Tawi-Tawi, an island province in the Philippines, which he suspects is training terrorists. The art is built around the relatively short chapters that end with questions which compel you to read 'just one more chapter'.

	Akdaan 2 By Akdang Dayo Intermediate/ Senior Anthology of short story, poetry and essays.	This anthology has a collection of artistic pieces of story, poetry, drama, and essays— which are varied, in kind and intensity. The wide range of conditions that our authors and their works represent in this book gives us a rich display of characters in the process of change as they - Filipino migrants, immigrants and their descendants - struggle or settle in a foreign land.
	Something In Between By Melissa de la Cruz Intermediate/ Senior Fiction	A story about teen romance and immigrant struggles. There are a lot of positive role models for academic and athletic achievement, pushing yourself, and working hard. The story encourages empathy for undocumented immigrants, and teens will learn a lot about what people go through in pursuit of the American dream. They'll also gain a lot of insight into Filipino culture.
	From Manila to Manicobe By Darlyne Bautista Intermediate/ Senior Informational Text Filipino-Canadian History	This volume features Dr. Jose Belmonte, the presentation of his oral history, and the exploration of his Filipino and Canadian experiences including: his experience as a boy in Japanese occupied Philippines during the Second World War; his experience as a medical graduate in the Philippines and later as a medical intern in Canada.