

Schools open, school buses are running

For today, all schools remain open and all school buses are running.

There is a snowfall warning in effect for today which could result in longer commute times, particularly for the afternoon.

Everyone is encouraged to monitor local weather and road conditions and exercise caution as they travel throughout the day. Stay safe everyone!

Parents, as always, can ultimately decide if they wish to send their children to school or keep them at home. Those who opt to keep their children at home are reminded to contact the school to report the absence.

Those who use school bus transportation are reminded to check the TSTG website for updates on delays. <https://busplannerweb.torontoschoolbus.org/Cancellations.aspx>
