Camp Engies!

June 8 - 9, 2019

Camp Tamarack

Grades 5-8

$60

Engineering Activities, Engineering Speakers, Cabins

Camp Engies is a two-day, one-night engineering retreat hosted at the Camp Tamarack in Bracebridge for girls in grades 5 through 8. The main goal of Camp Engies is to encourage girls to explore engineering at an early age. It not only connects girls with other like-minded individuals, but also gives the girls the potential to connect with real-world companies and sponsors. For example, one of our sponsors, Dyson, is a world-renowned company who is a huge change-maker the engineering world of household appliances.

Other Reminders:

Toronto Police 11 Division Community Survey

Open invitation to members of the community.

If you live or work within the geographic boundaries of 11 Division, as defined and served by the Toronto Police Service, I am requesting your assistance to complete a brief crime, disorder and public safety survey.

Your opinion is important to help us to better provide the policing services that you need.

The geographic boundaries of 11 Division are:

- (To the North) St. Clair Avenue West
- (To the South) Toronto shoreline
- (To the West) Humber River
- (To the East) Dufferin Street south to Queen St., West to Roncesvalles; South from Roncesvalles to the shoreline

It is a Goal for 11 Division and the Toronto Police Service to:

“Improve the quality of life within the community by reducing crime, disorder and enhancing public safety”.

The issues listed on the survey are representative of typical crime, disorder and public safety problems experienced in many communities across the city. These issues experienced by themselves or collectively can have a negative impact on the quality of life in the community.

For your convenience, the survey will be available online until February 10, 2019.
