Joanne Sambartolo,
Lunchtime Supervisor
St. Jerome Catholic School

Ms. Sambartolo is best known for her genuine care and compassion for the children that she works with. She is a strong advocate for Catholic education who volunteers at school masses, fundraisers and community barbecues, and helps out on pizza lunch days, patty lunch days and hot lunch days.

Omar Quamina,
Coach
Chaminade College School

Mr. Quamina is an alumnus of Chaminade College and volunteer coach of the school basketball team. His commitment and willingness to attend every practice and game for the entire year are highly commended by the entire school community.

Gina Gagarin,
Lunchtime Supervisor & Student Nutrition Coordinator
St. Gabriel Lalemant Catholic School

Ms. Gagarin is best known for her service and care for others, always making students, staff and community members feel welcomed. A steward of the earth,
Ms. Gagarin is always mindful of the packaging from the Student Nutrition Program meals and makes a great effort to recycle and compost where possible. She is a great leader, role model and an unsung hero of the St. Gabriel Lalemant community.

Andrea Rodriguez,
Teacher
St. John XXIII Catholic School

Ms. Rodriguez is known for being unassuming and modest while demonstrating a passion for teaching and forging strong bonds with students, colleagues, administrators and parents alike. Her colleagues agree that everything she does is done with tremendous energy and enthusiasm and intended to help students become better learners.