LOCAL POST-SECONDARY ACADEMIC COMPLETION OR BRIDGING PROGRAMS

Humber College: General Arts and Science Program

Humber College: Community Integration through Co-operative Education (CICE)

The Community Integration through Co-operative Education (CICE) program is designed to provide adults with intellectual disabilities (also known as developmental disabilities) the opportunity to experience college life.

- Must have a documented developmental disability
- Must be 19 years or older on the first day of classes (day after Labour Day)
- Participate in an interview

Seneca College: Academic Upgrading Program

Can lead to an Academic and Career Entrance (ACE) certificate which is accepted as equivalent to grade 12 for college entry

Seneca College: College Opportunities Program (CAP)

Students require an OSSD

All applicants are required to attend a pre-test and interview.

Centennial College: Academic Upgrading Program

Toronto Youth Job Corps (T.Y.J.C.)

TYJC is an employment program designed to connect youth to the work place through employment, school and/or training. We work with youth, between the ages of 16-29 who are out of school and out of work, to develop important life and employment skills that will ensure future success.

Youth aged 16-29 years at time of intake. Out of school and out of work.
Complete or incomplete high school education
No cost to participant.
Service Canada in Partnership with the City of Toronto.
