

Bullying, Cyberbullying & Sexting: What Parents Need to Know

Please join us for an evening with Dr. Faye Mishna, Dean of the Faculty of Social Work, U of T. Dr. Mishna will be presenting a talk on bullying, cyberbullying and sexting and will address risk and protective factors and how to communicate with your child on these topics.

Hosted by Neil McNeil and Cardinal Newman CSPCs

Wednesday, May 15, 7:00 – 8:00 p.m.
Cardinal Newman High School,
Auditorium
100 Brimley Road

Refreshments will be served

Faye Mishna is Dean and Professor at the Factor-Inwentash Faculty of Social Work, University of Toronto and is cross-appointed to the Department of Psychiatry. Faye holds the Margaret and Wallace McCain Family Chair in Child and Family. Faye has conducted research on bullying, cyber bullying, sexting and the impact of cyber technology in traditional face-to-face counseling and interventions with vulnerable children and youth. Her scholarly publications have focused on bullying, cyber bullying and sexting, clinical practice and social work education and more recently on cyber technology in social work clinical practice. Faye is the author of a book on bullying published by Oxford University Press in 2012 and is co-author of a book on bullying in Canada, published by Oxford University Press in 2015. She has a small private practice in consultation and therapy.