

Financial Literacy 101

Presented by

Michael Goldberg, B.Com., B.Ed., OCT

Michael Goldberg, is the winner of the 2011 Outstanding Educator in Financial Literacy Award. He is a Business and Computer Studies teacher at Martingrove Collegiate Institute of the Toronto District School Board, and he is also highly proactive in promoting financial literacy among teens in communities all over Ontario. Don't miss this rare opportunity to invest 90 minutes of your time to learn financial management skills that will be paying-off for the rest of your life!

Join us for a personal financial management workshop designed especially for teens! Become knowledgeable about financial concepts not usually taught in school! Some topics to be covered include

- income, expenses, budgets & saving
- investment for the young investor
- percentage and interest calculation
- debt and credit cards
- selecting and opening a bank account
