ATHLETE OF THE WEEK – February 16th to February 20th

Nicholas Mueller

Congratulations to Nicholas Mueller on being named this week's Athlete of the Week!

Nicholas is a grade 10 student-athlete and is enjoying his first year at Michael Power. Nicholas is, surprisingly for a junior athlete, the starting goalie for our Trojans senior contact-hockey team. His younger age is a non-factor playing senior hockey where, on the ice, he plays with great maturity and composure. His abilities and determination in net have been vital to this year's 4W-4L-2T season. Most recently, Nicholas helped the team win their last 3 regular season games, and was huge in the team's 4-1 quarter final win over rivals Redmond, which eliminated them from the playoffs. Nicholas was also solid in an unlucky loss in the team's first game of a best of 3 semi-final series vs. Brebeuf. With Nicholas in net, the team will be hoping to bounce back and even the series in tomorrow's game 2.

Nicholas has been playing hockey for 10 years, and outside of school he plays for the AAA Vaughn Kings, who were GTHL Champions 2 years ago. Moreover, Nicholas also plays soccer and lacrosse, and works hard in the classroom. He has all the qualities to make him a successful student-athlete in our Michael Power community for the remainder of his high school career.

MPSJ is lucky to have a talented student-athlete like Nicholas Mueller! Congratulations and best of luck in the remainder of your sport season!
