VIDEO SCRIPT – CHRISTMAS MESSAGE 2020

This song is from the Christmas movie “Scrooged” from the 1980’s. It’s a retelling of Dickens’ “A Christmas Carol” about Ebenezer Scrooge, a grumpy man who had a very negative attitude toward Christmas. After reflecting on his life and circumstances, he too changed his attitude about the meaning of Christmas.

This year many people may adopt the same grumpy attitude, considering the circumstance. But Christmas isn’t cancelled. It can’t be. Maybe we’ll have less distractions but the celebration of the birth of the Son of God, the Saviour of the world, the reason for the season, invites us to be filled with joy if we allow the spirit and love of God to touch our hearts. And if we spread that love, the Lord will bless us with the peace and joy of Jesus. So, let’s be creative and find ways to celebrate with family and friends the great gift of a much needed Saviour. If we allow it, this may be the best Christmas ever.

On behalf of the staff, students and parent council at St. Helen Catholic School, we wish everyone a blessed Christmas. Boas Festas!!! Merry Christmas!!!
