Dear Michael:

Re: Replacement School for St. John the Evangelist Catholic School
Status of the Project May 2013

The Capital Development continues to work on the St. John the Evangelist Catholic School. The status of the project is:

- Consultant and Facilities staff had a preliminary meeting with the City of Toronto Planning Department on March 6, 2013;
- Consultants and Facilities staff presented a design package to the school community at the May 15, 2013 CSAC Meeting; CSAC approved the design;
- Site Plan Application is anticipated early fall 2013, pending completion of land transfers and purchases;
- Subject to City of Toronto funding, a Child Care Centre for 36 children will be built along with the replacement school.

Please feel free to share this information with your school community. As the project progresses, check our website:
